

Desktop Linux for Middle East and African Markets

Friday, 06 April 2007

Linspire And Business International Partner To Bring Desktop Linux To Middle East And African Markets — Linspire, developer of the commercial desktop Linux operating system of the same name announced a strategic partnership with Business International to bring Linspire's desktop Linux operating system to the Middle East and African markets.